

Insurance Claim Rejection and Appeals Policy

Common Rejection Reasons

Claims may be rejected due to policy exclusions, non-disclosure of material facts, policy lapse, fraudulent information, incomplete documentation, or incidents occurring during waiting periods.

Document Verification

Claims cannot proceed until all required documents have been submitted and verified.

Appeal Process

Customers may appeal rejected claims by providing additional documentation or clarification within 30 calendar days of receiving the rejection notice.

Investigation

Certain claims may require detailed investigation before a final decision is reached.

Grievance Escalation

Unresolved concerns may be escalated to the Grievance Redressal Team through official support channels.